

1.

OPTION B.

a) True. "they found that feel-good chemicals ... leading to increased pain because".

b) True. "the results revealed that ... they also had increased feelings of group bonding."

2. a) The test consisted in measuring the degree of emotions before and after watching the film proposed. Some candidates were also told to stay in a specific uncomfortable position to test their endorphin level.

b) one reason is the capacity to modify one's mood. The other reason is one's pain limit is expanded.

3. a) trigger

b) troubled

c) to gauge

d) appealing.

4. a) which / than

b) luckiest / had never

c) going out / stay

d) if I could meet her at the cinema.

5. Descriptive writing.

- Name

- Your opinion of the film.

- Description with more details, feelings

- Conclusion and opinion.

+ Time connectors - sequencing ...

+ adjectives and adverbs

Opicdo A.

1. a) F "that gives a warning buzz", not a visual signal.
b) F "the prototype focuses on the wearer."

2. a) The new watch needs information of the individual's pulse rate, body temperature, action, blood pressure. This is physical information.

b) This invention might be useful to prevent social problems, relationships and more serious mental diseases. It might also help to be successful when being a job searcher.

3. a) manner
b) device
c) watch
d) succeed

4. a) Although ~~Leventhough~~ / most
b) were
c) matches / is put
d) what else she had bought

5. Opinion writing.

- Presentation and opinion.
- Facts and reasons to support your opinion
- Conclusion - restate your opinion.
- + Connectors of opinion, addition, summing up.

